Chatting with Mr. Chatterton

Happy short week Dragons,

We will have early out on Wednesday and no school Thursday, Friday or Monday. Enjoy your five day weekend.

Thanks for your support last week with the Book Fair and Grandparents' Day. Both were very successful.

Congratulations to Mrs. Bendall's class and to 6th grade for having over 50% participation in the Reflections contest. Mrs. Bendall's class will have a pizza party, and the 6th grade will get treats on Wednesday.

Thanks!

Jeremy Chatterton

Principal

PTA NEWS

Red Ribbon Week is coming up October 24-27.

Activities to promote healthy living choices and community support will be conducted every day at recess. Flyers will be sent home with a list of activities for each day.

We are looking for volunteers Monday-Thursday. Email dilworthpta@outlook.com if you can help at all during lunch hours, 11-1:30 Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday or call Shannon Gormley at 801-694-1308.

Thank you to all who volunteered during our Book Fair last week. The library was able to purchase many new books for the students.

Thank you as well to those who volunteered for the Reflections contest. Congratulations to everyone who entered this year's Reflections contest. All of the entries are magnificent works of art. We look forward to hearing which entries will move onto the next level of the contest.

Book Fair

A HUGE thank you to our Dilworth Community for making the Fall Book Fair a great success! Thank you to the PTA organizers and volunteers! We could not do it without you! Enjoy the books!
