Chatting with Mr. Chatterton

Happy Monday and happy October Dragons,

We are in need of help during lunch. We would like to have two adults in the cafeteria and two adults outside during recess. Currently, we have some of our paid paras outside during this time but we would like to be able to provide them a lunch break also. If you can commit to volunteer to help any day, please let Carolyn or myself know.

Continuing on the lunch theme, we are starting to accrue quite a balance in regards to our lunch money owed. If you owe lunch money currently, will you please submit payment to <https://www2.mypaymentsplus.com/welcome> or you may pay with cash or check to Carolyn in the main office. Our school ends up paying for overdue balances and this takes away from classroom supplies, textbooks, etc. Sometimes students go back for second lunches or extra milk, etc. and accrue additional lunch debt, so please check your account often and keep the balance up to date. Thanks!

SEP conferences are next week, if you have not received an email to sign up, please contact your teacher.

Also, remember to get creative with your entries for the Reflections contest. Artwork is due October 13th. All entrants will receive a "Within Reach" button for your backpack or jacket. The class with the highest participation will win a pizza party.

Thanks!

Jeremy Chatterton

Principal

PTA NEWS

Once again, thank you for your support in our Dots for Dilworth fundraiser this fall. Because of our students' fund raising efforts, we were able to bring in over $20,000. Congratulations to Colton Harding, top individual fundraiser, Mason West, runner-up fundraiser, and the Romney family for being our top fundraisers. They were awarded iPads for their efforts. The top class fundraisers were Mrs. Young's class, first place and winner of the class pizza party, and Mrs. Zane's class who won an ice cream party.

The money raised will be used throughout the year to pay for Field day, room parent and AR party reimbursements, science fair support, reading week activities, red ribbon week activities, reflections prizes, Staff appreciation gifts, and dinners for teachers during SEP conferences.

Parents, we need your help for the book fair! There are over 20 time slots that need to be filled for volunteers to help cashier. If you haven't volunteered before, the book fair is a great and easy way to do so!

Book Fair and Grandparents' Lunch

Book Fair is next week. On Tuesday, Oct. 10th, the book fair will be open from 3:15 to 5:00 p.m. On Wed., Oct. 11th and Thurs., Oct. 12th, it will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m., hoping grandparents during lunch and parents during SEP's will stop by to purchase books. On the last day of the book fair, Fri., Oct. 13th, it will be open from 8:00 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Grandparents' lunch will be Wed., Oct. 11, for students with last names beginning A-L and Thurs., Oct. 12, for students with last names beginning M-Z. Look for a form about the grandparents' lunch which will be sent home with your student this week. The lunch form will need to be returned so the cafeteria can prepare enough food for the additional guests.

Reflections

It is time for Reflections again! Reflections is a wonderful program that encourages our children to explore their artistic talents and to become involved in art. This year's theme is "Within Reach". There will be six categories for entry: dance, film, literature, music, photography, and visual arts. This year you will receive a participation pin JUST FOR ENTERING! We want everyone to participate in this FREE art program, beginners welcomed! Your children will be learning about this contest in class and if you have any questions please contact Karen Redmon. Entries will be accepted October 11th and 12th from 8:00-8:30 a.m. OR 3:15-3:45 p.m., as well as October 13th from 8:00-8:30 am. Let's help our children explore their talents or find new ones by making art around the theme "Within Reach!"

Chess Club

It is time to sign up for Chess Club if you want to be a part of it this year. They will meet at 7:30 a.m. on Mondays in the music room and go until 8:20 a.m. for the whole school year. If you want to join, come to room 155 Monday morning, where you can get registered with the club.

Walk More in Four
