Chatting with Mr. Chatterton

We have a regular schedule for classes this week (no snow day off)... full day Thursday and short day on Friday.

We are counting the days left of school and want to make the most of them. We are still doing some end-of-year testing, so continue to have your children get plenty of sleep and a good breakfast and BE ON TIME! No kindergarten classes this week because of their testing. Library books are due this week.

Hope you enjoy these last weeks of May!

Ignite your Dragon Fire!

ALL LIBRARY BOOKS ARE DUE FRIDAY, MAY 24TH!

Students are not charged "overdue fines", but they are expected to replace or pay for any lost book(s). Please check your home libraries, backpacks, under the bed, behind the dresser and any other unique place for hiding school library books and return them at your earliest convenience. Thank you!

PTA NEWS

The end of the year is here! The PTA is putting together Field Day and we need all the help we can get. Please click on the link below to volunteer for a fun afternoon!

Field Day is Monday, June 3, from 12:30-3:00 p.m.. Have your child dressed for the weather. They will get wet, and sunscreen would be a great idea. They won't want to miss it!
